

Age; Wisdom and the Ever Evolving Valentine

By Lorraine Voss

Further apart, less kissing, caressing,
'though closer at heart than ever before.
Time, it's true, parts the hearts of men but 'stickers' and 'stayers,' they know of the score.
Facing each obstacle hand in hand,
stronger than ever, united they stand!
Less kissing, caressing, but lovers the same -
There's no second guessing this romance game.
