

Reason

By Ariel Cochran

I am a ripple in life
A tool of our maker
I'm here one day and gone the next
My life being great or not

My presence inspires
Changed thoughts if only a moment
Made someone's day
Or did nothing at all
But the fact I am here still stands
It still makes a difference

My decisions branch off new ideas
Remodels lives
Knocks options into oblivion
Distorts what would have been

I'm a domino in life
Set by our maker to forge paths
Be it birth or death
If only for a moment
I still make a difference
