

Who Are You?

By Una Clarke

Who am I?

I am the voice who calls you

I am the dew that kisses the wind

I am the songbird

I am the laughter of your broken spirit

I am the voice of love

I am the soft gentle breeze that caresses your spirit

Who Am I?

I am the longing within you

I am the light that shines

I am the radiance that blooms in your skin

WHO AM I?

I am the morning mist

That rises to meet the dawn

I am the kingfisher

I am the dance

I am the rhythm

That beats in your heart

I am the voice that is calling you

BLOW BUGLE BLOW

Triumphant air

My song is within you

Come celebrate with me

For I am the voice of love

WHO AM I?

I am the sun-drenched lily

That pulsate the sweet aroma of honey

I am the golden sun kissed sand

That warms your feet

I am the wind that sweeps the tide

I am the birth of spring that promises summer

I am the joy that lifts your sorrow

I am the strength within you

I AM the I AM
